Dr. Cristy Brown—Music Director
Ministers – All of Us

We affirm that all people, regardless of race, culture, country of origin, gender, orientation, or ability, are welcome and beloved in God's Kingdom and in our congregation.

Today, we celebrate the 113th anniversary of the charter of Trinity Moravian Church. But our actual history in this neighborhood goes back even further, to 1886 and the building of the Centerville Chapel only a few blocks from our current location. We rejoice in our history, but together look forward to needed and vital ministries of the future in this community!

We invite you to stay after worship for a potluck luncheon. The meats and drinks are supplied by the church; we have asked members to bring side dishes and desserts. Our Archive Committee has worked hard on setting up a display on the history of Trinity's very active softball team.
