Ministers – All of Us

We affirm that all people, regardless of race, culture, country of origin, gender, orientation, or ability, are welcome and beloved in God's Kingdom and in our congregation.

Today, we rejoice in the baptism of Mark Samuel Kohler (Sammy), Mildred Jane Kohler (Millie), and Robert Wyatt Stover (Wyatt); and the confirmation of Tucker Lee Hege (Tucker). We are proud of these fine young people as they affirm their faith today. Following their confirmation or baptism, we will all join in a service of Holy Communion in observance of the martyrdom of Jan Hus.

The offertory, Bohemian March, is an original piece created for Jan Hus Communion. It is not a military march but rather a "walk" that represents the persistence and petitioning involved in exacting change. There are darker moments that may evoke feelings of frustration or simply discernment in working through change. The March is in a minor key but emerges from the shadows into light at the end. - Erik Salzwedel
